TWO CLUBS GET TOGETHER. Poultry and Pigeon Associations Decide to Amalgamate.

Arrangements for the consolidation of the two poultry and pigeon clubs of Washington were completed at a joint meeting of the organizations in the Chamber of Commerce last night. By the terms of the agreement which was reached after several months of consideration and discussion the Greater Washington Poultry and Pigeon Association and the National Capital Poultry and Pigeon Association and the National Capital Poultry and Pigeon Association and the National Capital Poultry and Pigeon Association are amalgamated, and Pigeon Association are amalgamated, and a title for the new organization is to be decided upon at another joint meeting to be held in the near future.

At the meeting last night plans were se on foot for an exhibition of fancy poultry and pigeons to be held in Washington next winter. This show, it is declared, is to be by far the most comprehensive and pretentious of its kind ever given in Washington. The dates for the exhibition it was annuanced are January 10. tion, it was announced, are January 19
